JAMES S. REAGER.
R. D. BLACK.

The Bishop announced the transfer of Dr. Bayliss to the Detroit Conference and M. Y. Bovard to the South India Conference, and of S. M. Vernon from the Pittsburg Conference to this.

The special committee presented the following, which was adopted:

CLAIMS OF THE CONFERENCE ON THE FUNDS OF THE LATE BROOKVILLE COLLEGE.

The committe to whom the papers in reference to said claims were referred respectfully report: That the question of legal action involves grave points of law and equity, requiring careful examination. They, therefore, recommend that the whole matter be referred to a committee consisting of Rev. F. C Holliday, Hon. Will Cumback and William Newkirk, to give it a thorough examination and take such action as will in their judgment be right and proper.

The following was adopted:

Your committee to whom was referred the case of Mrs. S. A. Williams, widow of Rev. S. S. Williams, who represents herself as a claimant on the South-East Indiana Conference, report that they have carefully examined the records of the Conference, and find that said Sanford S. Williams died in 1841, in the north part of the state, and in the division of the state into two Conferences, his widow fell into the North Indiana Conference, and not the south part of the state. We therefore recommend that these papers be returned to the pastor of Glenwood Circuit, DesMoines Conference, Iowa, with a copy of the above report.

GEORGE L. CURTISS. JAMES TARKINGTON.
W. W. SNYDER.

The Committee on Camp Meetings presented the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CAMP MEETINGS.

As there has been a growing interest in camp meetings in all parts of the country during the past few years, and as in some instances there has been just ground for the complaint of the desecration of the Sabbath by the running of excursion trains to and from camp meetings on the Sabbath day, and by the transaction of other unnecessary secular business on that day; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty and obligation of those having charge of all camp grounds and camp meetings within the bounds of the South-East Indiana Conference to see that everything connected with and done upon these camp grounds and at camp meetings be done in the spirit of decency and order, and not in violation of any moral or civil law.

Resolved, That it is the duty of all camp meeting associations owning camp grounds to fence them before another camp meeting is held, so that all admissions shall be through well guarded gates, and to see that said gates be closed on Saturday night, and kept closed until Monday morning, so that neither ingress nor egress shall be had on the Sabbath day, and thereby peace and quiet be observed.

Resolved, That certified copies of the foregoing be furnished to the various camp meeting associations within the bounds of the South-East Indiana Conference.

J. TARKINGTON J. S. TEVIS.
GEORGE L. CURTISS. J. H. BAYLISS.

We, the committee appointed to try the charge against Rev. F. S. Turk, find that he is guilty of gross imprudent conduct, and that he be suspended from the ministry. J. TARKINGTON, President.

J. K. PYE,
Secretary.

A paper was presented from Phillips & Hunt.

The Committee on Church Extension presented their report (see No. 10), which was adopted.

For the purpose of preventing further losses to this fund on account of bankruptcies, deaths and removals, the Board of Directors of this society, at the annual meeting last year, passed an order directing the Agent to proceed at once to collect all outstanding subscription notes that were due.

The agent made an effort in that direction, but met with but little success, owing to the fact that the drawers of these notes claimed, in almost every case, that their notes were given with the understanding that the interest only would be required annually, and that the principal was payable only at the option of the drawer of the note.

It is a sufficient answer to this objection to say, that no agent of this society was ever authorized by the Board of Directors to make any such verbal contract, and that there is no such stipulation in the notes taken, and consequently this objection to payment of the principal can have no force in law, and can be no bar whatever to their immediate collection.

But the Financial Committee has decided to place the most liberal construction upon this imperative order of the Board, and in every case where the party does not desire to pay the principal of his note, a new note, with approved security, will be accepted in settlement, upon the payment of any interest that may be due on the old note.

A glance at the Treasurer's report, showing the large per cent. of loss sustained each year on these notes, on account of deaths, removals and bankruptcies, will certainly be sufficient to convince all of the wisdom and absolute necessity of the immediate settlement of these claims, either by payment, or by renewal with security.

All can see the importance of a prompt compliance with this order on the part of the ministry, who are, of all persons, most interested in the safety of these funds, and in order that the Agent may be better prepared to insist upon compliance upon the part of the laiety. Respectfully submitted,

F. M. DOWDEN,
Treasurer.

REPORT ON EDUCATIONAL WORK.

THE INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.

This institution has just closed its forty-first year, with an aggregate attendance of three hundred and fifty-nine—graduating a class of twenty-eight young men and five young ladies.

As regards the amount and character of the instruction given, it is believed that the faculty have done more work, and better work, the past year, than during any former period of their connection with the University.

The students, as a rule, have been prompt, studious and obedient, few cases having occurred calling for discipline. A slightly decreased attendance, during the past year, has naturally caused comment, and may have created some unnecessary foreboding. In so far as this diminution has arisen from causes other than those affecting all similar institutions, they may be summed up under one head—lack of means.

The age demands not only fuller courses of study, but a greater variety from which to choose, and this means, more work —more workers—more money!

The Faculty of Asbury, from time to time, have generously responded to the call for increased instruction, by increasing their own labors, but the demand can not be met fully, without an additional force af teachers.

A change has been made in the course of instruction, providing a wider range of elective studies, based upon a foundation of requirements, which, it is hoped, will meet the wants of a greater number of students, and supply in part, but in part only, the conditions that have been lacking. Your Board of Instruction are withheld from planning better things for Asbury —things, which, in their judgment, are essential to the continued prosperity of the institution.

Had the University a boarding-home for young ladies, and rooms and appurtenances for the study of music and the fine arts, the number of young women would be more than doubled, within the next twelve months.

Could a more extended course of civil-engineering be given, than is practicable, under present circumstances, and more and better opportunities and appliances for the practical study of astronomy, and other scientific branches, be afforded, this alone, —not to speak of the supply of other needs—would soon largely add to the number of students.

The responsibility of this work lies, in part, with the members of the South-East Indiana Conference, and we trust the interests at stake will inspire them to meet and to discharge the same according to their ability.

The Conferences of Indiana control the election of Asbury's trustees; the trustees control its finances, and its finances control its destiny. Cut short the one, and you inevitably cut short the other.

It is true that a large percentage of the means raised within the last ten years, for the completion of the new college building, and for the furnishing of its several recitation halls, has been through the efforts of the faculty. But this can not be engaged in, to any great extent, without detriment to their special work.

In view of these facts, may we not urge upon the Conference a judicious selection of trustees, who shall give themselves to the peculiar work of promoting the financial interests of Asbury —interests upon which everything else depends?

To this work the Conference should pledge its hearty co-operation and encouragement.

Upon our visitors is also urged the propriety of an early attendance during commencement, and, if possible, a visit during the working season; so that the wants of the University, and the successes or failures of those to whom its literary interests are committed, may be known and judged from the standpoint of personal observation.

We are glad to report that the old college building, destroyed by fire last winter, has been re-built and enlarged, furnishing greater capacities and better facilities for the preparatory department than have hitherto been offered.

Dr. J. M. Mansfield, recently elected Professor of Natural Science, has arrived, and entered with energy upon preparations for his work. Dr. Mansfield comes to the University with large reputation and extended experience in the best laboratories of London, Paris, Munich, Vienna and Berlin.

Prof. Edwin Post, late Professor of Ancient Languages in Pennington Seminary, New Jersey, has also arrived at Greencastle, prepared to enter upon his work. Prof. Post comes highly recommended as a scholar and successful teacher, and is represented as giving promise of a more than ordinary prominence as a linguist. He is a member of the New Jersey Conference, and we recommend that he be invited to membership in the South-East Indiana Conference, and assured of a most hearty welcome to the same.

Contributions to the University, since last report, are as follows:

To the endowment fund	$4,000.00
To the general usages of the college	2,125.25
Donations of books, etc., to societies and departments	2,210.00
An aggregate of	$8,335.25

At its last annual session, this Conference pledged, by resolution, the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars for the purpose of heating Meharry Hall. Of this amount the Treasurer has received two hundred and nine dollars, leaving an unpaid balance of sixteen dollars, which we recommend to be paid by immediate collection.

The Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors send the following for your action:

Resolved, That the Board invites each of the Conferences of Indiana to raise twenty-five thousand dollars, as for the endowment of the University, and that the Conferences adopt their own plans for this purpose.

We also recommend that each of the four Conferences be requested to raise, at their earliest convenience, the sum of one thousand dollars, by apportioning the same to their several districts, according to their several ability; so as to secure within the bounds of each Conference the sum of one thousand dollars, to meet the expense of re-building the old college, recently destroyed by fire.

Resolved, That as a Board, we think favorably of the request made by the Alumni of the Indiana Asbury University, that they, in their organized capacity should have full power to elect from their own number one fifth of the Trustees of the University; but inasmuch as the charter of the University invests the several annual conferences in the state of Indiana, with the authority to elect these Trustees, and any change in this respect would involve an alteration in the charter under which the University is governed; therefore,

Resolved, That this question be referred to the favorable consideration of the four Indiana Conferences.

Your committee regard favorably the proposition of raising the amounts above specified, to be applied as therein named, and recommend the appointment of a committee consisting of the Presiding Elders, together with Eli F. Ritter, Wm. Newkirk, Dr. John Goodwin and D. G. Philipps, whose duty it shall be to devise ways and means of raising said sums.

The following action is recommended in regard to the proposition for alumnal representation on the Board of Trustees:

Resolved, That we will give preference, other things being equal, to properly recommended candidates from the Alumni Association, for members of the Board of Trustees of the Indiana Asbury University, to the extent of one-fifth of said membership.

We recommend the re-appointment of Patterson McNutt as Professor of Mathematics in the University.

E. G. WOOD,
Chairman of Committee.
P. MCNUTT,
Secretary.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

The past year of this institution has been a successful one. The net total of attendance was one hundred and twenty-one.

The present term has opened more favorably than the corresponding term of last year, and the friends of the college have great reason to believe that the crisis in its history has been passed.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, in June last, it was declared that the necessary amounts had been raised, completing the endowment fund of twenty thousand dollars; thus securing the conditional notes given five years ago. As it now stands, with an endowment of some twenty-two thousand dollars, the interest accruing therefrom, together with the tuition, will, it is thought, amply provide funds for meeting the general expenses of the institution.

Rev. J. H. Doddridge, a young man of excellent scholarship, and of fine business and social qualities, has been elected to the Presidency, who, assisted by a competent corps of professors, we are assured, will put new life and vigor into the institution.

Persons desiring to secure educational advantages, or parents who wish to send their sons and daughters to school, at a distance, can do no better than to patronize Moore's Hill College.

The morals of Moore's Hill have always been of a high character, no liquor saloons being allowed to exist in the place.

Excellent boarding can be had at from two to three dollars per week, everything found and furnished.

The terms of office of the following Trustees have expired: Rev. L. G. Adkinson, Rev. J. H. Martin, Henry F. Gault, Benj. F. Draper and Geo. W. Wood.

We recommend for their successors Rev. L. G. Adkinson, Rev. J. H. Martin, Rev. H. N. Marlatt, Benj. F. Draper and George W. Wood.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE VISITORS.

Your visitors to Moore's Hill College take pleasure in reporting a very hopeful condition of its affairs. Unusual efforts have been made during the past year to secure the completion of the twenty thousand dollar endowment, and entire success has filled our hearts with joy. We may now consider our conference school as one of the permanent institutions of the church. President John, to the regret of all, resigned his position at the close of the last college year, but his place has been filled by the election of Rev. J. H. Doddridge.

President Doddridge has entered upon his duties with the most gratifying prospects of success.

More students have been enrolled, to date, than for any corresponding period for years. An increase of patronage is all the college wants, and that can be secured if our pastors will give the matter due attention. If each one will do his part, the number of pupils may easily be increased to two hundred this year. Let us remember that this is our school, and work for its success.

We recommend as Conference visitors to Moore's Hill College, Revs. M. L. Wells, Henry Wood, J. W. Dashiell, G. P. Jenkins, Geo. L. Curtiss.

TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

To the South-East Indiana Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: God's providential mercies are still extended to our theological school. We are not wanting public confidence, as far as concerns the number and character of students in attendance. Eighteen were graduated at the late anniversary—the largest number, except the class of the previous year, since the school began its work of instruction. An excellent Christian spirit prevailed. Many—more than half—were occupied on Sabbaths at preaching appointments, in mission and in Sabbath-school work.

In the report of last year we were driven to speak of financial extremities, and to ask temporary aid in the current expenses. We are happy to say such aid was generously given.

It is deemed necessary to continue agencies for raising the current expenses, and also endowments so greatly needed, because of the depressed value and income of the institute property.

The Rev. William X. Ninde, D. D., who for the last six years has stood in the relation of Professor of Practical Theology, has been elected, by the unanimous votes of the Trustees and Faculty, in addition to his duties as Professor, to the office of President of the Faculty. Besides his instruction in practical theology, his labors will for the present also be to increase the endowments of the institute, in co-operation with Rev. Dr. W. C. Dandy, the financial agent.

Our school is not local, but belongs to the whole Church, and is so recognized by the General Conference. It is your school pre-eminently, and, if permitted still to flourish, will hereafter more abundantly than heretofore, do a grand work in the training of your ministers. Its former students are now laboring for the Master in nearly all quarters of the globe, and it is of the greatest moment that the institution be permitted to reinforce these a hundred fold.

We respectfully ask that you appoint two Visitors for the coming year.

W. X. NINDE,
M. RAYMOND,
H. BANNISTER,
F. D. HEMENWAY,
Faculty.

GRANT GOODRICH,
LUKE HITCHCOCK,
ALBRO BISHOP,
ORRINGTON LUNT,
E. H. GAMMON,
CHARLES H. FOWLER,
Trustees.

We recommend as Visitors to Garrett Institute—Prof. P. McNutt and J. G. Chafee.

MEMOIRS

No. 5.

REV. EDWARD R. AMES, D. D., LL. D.

Rev. Edward R. Ames. D. D., LL. D., one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who departed this life at his late residence in the city of Baltimore, April 25, 1879, in the seventy-third year of his age, was so long personally connected with the Church in Indiana, that we deem it proper to enter this minute upon our journals.

Bishop Ames was received on trial into the traveling connection in 1830, and was appointed as junior preacher to School Creek Circuit, in the state of Illinois. But from 1831, which was the date of his second appointment, until 1852, when he was elected to the Episcopacy, he was connected with the work in Indiana, with the exception of one year—1857—when he was stationed in St. Louis, Mo.

To the older members of this Conference Bishop Ames was known intimately as a fellow-laborer for a period of twenty years, and in every position which he occupied, whether that of junior preacher on a circuit, pastor of a city church or presiding elder of a district, he was faithful and efficient. His plans for church work were broad and comprehensive. He was an excellent organizer and a born leader. His quick and clear perception and his cool judgment would place him in the front rank of any assemblage of men.

Indiana Methodism, in what may be regarded as its heroic age, gathered much of its enthusiasm and inspiration from the spirit, the counsels and the example of Bishop Ames.

In the judicious expansion of the work, in securing elegible sites for worship and in the erection of churches, his influence was greatly felt. In the founding of our cherished University he was a recognized leader, giving personal attention to the drafting of the charter, and securing its passage through the legislature, and being one of the first to give a thousand dollar towards its endowment.

We, his co-laborers in Indiana, knew him as a discriminating and generous giver. His home was the seat of a cheerful hospitality, and while Presiding Elder of Indianapolis district, he some years gave away the entire amount of his receipts from the church in aid of needy and promising church enterprises. He was never boastful of his generosity, but was a cheerful giver.

As a man, he was a noble specimen, physically, intellectually, and morally—born of the best New England stock, a kinsman of Fisher Ames. Few men have appeared in this land, prolific as it has been of great men, who have been the peers of Bishop Ames. Of full size and noble presence, he would attract attention in any company.

Although he left Athens University, the state college of Ohio, where he was educated, previous to his graduation, he was, nevertheless, a good scholar, and his general knowledge was comprehensive and accurate.

His was a judicial cast of mind. He was a safe counselor, as well as a wise administrator. He was an able debater, though never a wordy man. He saw the weak points of his opponent, and knew as well as the great Napoleon how to mass his forces and where to deal his heaviest blows.

He was, both from conviction and taste, a genuine Methodist. His conversion was clear and satisfactory. His call of God to the work of the ministry he never doubted, and hence there was a solidity and steadiness in his Christian and ministerial character, which marked his whole course through life. Nothing swerved him for a moment from his high purpose. The work of the ministry filled the measure of his ambition, and yet he was keenly alive to every interest of humanity. He was an ardent patriot, and in the darkest days of the Rebellion, never despaired of the Republic. He gave to the cause of the Union the whole weight of his influence. President Lincoln often leaned on him for support, and was ever ready to acknowledge the wisdom of his advice. He was the first to plan for the re-occupancy of the south, and we owe much of our success, and of our present position in the south, to the sagacity, statesmanship and courage of Bishop Ames. His love for his country, and his whole country, was an absorbing passion. As his church was good enough and great enough for him, so was his country. He was familiar with its topography. He had threaded its forests, crossed its prairies, scaled its mountains, and traversed its lakes and rivers; and to him America was sacred to liberty and the rights of mankind. He was first and last and always an American.

He never sought foreign travel and never aped foreign manners.

As a bishop he has left his impress upon the church he loved. His preaching was eminently instructive and practical, and left an abiding impression upon the minds of his hearers, and many of his sermons were characterized with great power.

He was wise in counsel, careful and painstaking in his administration, considerate and tender towards the pastors whose labors he distributed among the churches, and firm and uncompromising upon all moral questions. He was ever at the post of duty, and worked up to the last, holding his last conference within six weeks of his death.

With him life closed grandly. His work was done, and with an implicit faith and perfect resignation, he passed from labor to reward. He knew whom he had believed.

"His soul was whispered out with God's still voice,
As an old friend is beckoned to a feast,
And treated like a long familiar guest.
God took him as he found, but found him so,
As one in hourly readiness to go."

The chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof were in waiting to convey him to his heavenly home. And while we profoundly sympathize with his family—theirs is a grief with which a stranger may not intermeddle—yet we assure them of our earnest prayers. And while we feel the loss which the church has sustained in the death of one of her chief pastors, we rejoice that while God removes the workers, the work still goes on.

E. G. WOOD.

REV. LANDY HAVENS.

Rev. Landy Havens was born in Fleming county, Kentucky, January 31, 1875, and died at Arlington, Indiana, March 3, 1879. He was the son of Rev. James Havens of precious memory. He immigrated with his parents to Indiana in 1828. He was licensed to preach in 1835, and admitted to the Indiana Conference in 1838. In this, and subsequently in the South-East Indiana Conference, he labored until 1872, when his health failing, he was superannuated. In 1875 he again took work, but on account of his health from 1877 until his death was superannuated.

The following were his appointments: In 1838, Columbus; 1839, Centerville; 1840, Liberty; 1841, Brookville; 1842, Milford; 1843, Milroy; 1844, Burlington; 1845, Mt. Auburn; 1846, Franklin; 1847, Mt. Auburn; 1848, Morgantown; 1849 and 1850, Orleans; 1851, Milford; 1852, Clarksburg; 1853, Manchester; 1854, Sugar Creek; 1855, Milford; 1856, Vernon; 1857 and 1858, Mt. Carmel; 1859, Clarksburg; 1860, Greenwood; 1861 and 1862, Burlington; 1863, St. Louis; 1864, Southport; 1865, Mt. Auburn; 1866 and 1867, Columbia; 1868 and 1869, Milroy; 1870, Hartsville; 1871, Morristown; 1872, 1873 and 1874, superannuated; 1875, St. Paul; 1876, Lawrence.

He was married to Miss Lucinda Richie, October 4, 1843, who survives him.

He had much zeal for the cause of Christ, and his labors were crowned with success. Many were converted under his ministry and added to the church. As a preacher, he was earnest; in style, hortatory rather than doctrinal—always aiming to lead the unconverted immediately to Christ. As a pastor he was diligent, looking after all the interest of the church, and imitating the Savior by visiting the sick and comforting those in distress.

His affliction was protracted and intense. While suffering he said: "Is it because I have been so great a sinner? Yes, I have sinned, but Jesus has pardoned my sins. I know he has." When almost stepping into the Jordan, he was asked, "Do you feel that the Lord sustains you?" "Yes," said he, "he leads me every step of the way." And in this faith he fell asleep in Jesus.

REV. ELISHA B. CADWELL, A. M.

Rev. Elisha B. Cadwell, A. M., was born in Warrick county, Ind., November 29, 1850; died at his father's, Rev. E. W. Cadwell, in Canton, Washington county, Ind., March 13, 1879. Was converted in 1861, licensed to preach in 1871; admitted on trial in the South-East Indiana Conference and appointed to Wilmington circuit, September, 1874; appointed to Vernon circuit, in 1875; ordained deacon and admitted to full membership in the Conference September, 1876; married to Anna E. Conner September 17, 1877, and ordained elder September, 1878.

After receiving instruction in primary and preparatory branches from his father and mother and in the schools in his father's neighborhood, he pursued a full classical course in Moore's Hill College, graduating with the degree of A. B. in June, 1875. Like many others, he labored under financial embarrassments in prosecuting his college course. Sometimes he performed manual labor, sometimes taught to replenish his empty treasury. Toward the close of his course he borrowed one hundred dollars from the conference Educational Board, which he soon afterward returned. Moore's Hill College has had few better students, and has sent forth few better scholars than E. B. Cadwell. Part of the year, while still a student, he was, by appointment of the presiding elder, pastor of Delaware circuit, and he pursued his senior studies and graduated while in charge of the Wilmington circuit. He spent three years on Vernon circuit, with almost universal acceptability. In April, 1878, after a winter's campaign of protracted meetings, he had an illness from which he never fully recovered. He sent to his presiding elder and to his quarterly conference his resignation as pastor; but the Conference declined to accept his resignation, requesting that an assistant be employed to relieve him of the heavy labor. In the summer of 1878 the trustees of Moore's Hill College elected him Professor of Ancient Languages, which chair he filled for two months, but failing health compelled him to resign it. He sought health in a southern clime, but soon returned to die under the parental roof. He was an earnest Christian, a faithful pastor, a sound and instructive preacher. In his last illness his sufferings were intense. For the last two weeks he was unconscious much of the time, and died in that condition. In his lucid intervals he manifested full confidence in the Divine promise, and unshaken trust in the Savior. He quoted such scriptures as Romans, viii, 18 and verse 38: "The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God." The promises which he had preached to others were his solace when dying.

THIRZIE MAY HAMLIN.

Thirzie May Hamlin, wife of W. S. Hamlin, was born at Paris, Ohio, January 12, 1851, and died at the parsonage in Wilmington, Indiana, August, 25, 1879. She was united in marriage to Brother Hamlin June 3, 1874, at Lawrenceburg, Indiana.

In very early life she was converted and connected herself with the church. Religious training in her youth impressed her mind deeply with love for the church and the worth of souls. After her marriage she entered heartily into the work of the church, and faithfully and lovingly assisted her husband in his ministerial duties as a pastor.

She was possessed of a quiet and amiable disposition, which always endeared her to those who knew her. In her last home at Wilmington she most signally won all hearts by her kindness and Christian devotion. In the midst of her arrangements to enjoy this session of the Conference, she was stricken down with typhoid fever. No apprehensions of danger were felt until a very few hours before her death. She sank rapidly during Sabbath night, the 24th; when the morning of the 25th came, her pure spirit went home to God. She left an infant babe six months old—an only child—and for it her mother heart yearned with deep solicitude to the last.

Thus early in life, and early in her life-labors for Jesus, has another gentle, pure and loving one been called to the reward of the faithfnl. The church militant has one less—the church triumphant one more.

The blessings of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts, where her footsteps pressed,
Like fairy blossoms grew.

REPORT ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

Deeming the Sunday-school the primary department of the church, affording the best opportunity for the general diffusion of Bible knowledge and for the moral and religious training of the young, we deem it but right that it should not only have the fostering care of the church, but that we, as pastors, should see to it that the cardinal doctrines of the church are kept prominently before the children, to the end they may grow up Methodists, as well as Christian Bible students.

We deprecate the fact that so many of our schools have never been organized into missionary societies, and again insist upon it that every pastor having such school under his charge should remedy the evil at once by prompt organization, and then carefully guard the moneys gathered through this channel, and see that they are not diverted from their proper course, that our children may have a careful and systematic training upon the subject of missions, as well as religion.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is a wickedness productive of the most of the crime and misery of our land, and should therefore be suppressed; and

WHEREAS, Various organizations and appliances have been and are still being used for the extirpation of this terrible curse; and

WHEREAS, We fully accept the theory of legal prohibition as the only efficient remedy against this direst of curses; and

WHEREAS, Public sentiment needs cultivation for the adoption and maintenance of such law; and

WHEREAS, The church is the appointed agency to create such sentiment, we, as ministers, will keep the subject before the people, by preaching and otherwise, and especially look after the children by having temperance meetings at least quarterly in our Sabbath-schools,

Resolved, That we will give our moral support to those who endeavor to enforce the civil law on the subject of temperance.

Believing that the use of tobacco is, in general, offensive and in some cases pernicious, and that no minister can be a proper example of the believers as taught by the apostle, while using it, therefore

Resolved, That we reaffirm the action of the Conference on this subject at its session in 1877.

Chairman, on behalf of Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

Your committee would respectfully represent their conviction of the urgent necessity of a thorough awakening of the whole church on this most important subject.

The public conscience needs to be aroused to the great evil of Sabbath desecration.

From all parts of our country come reports of a growing disregard to God's holy day. Many of the secular papers justify, and many public corporations encourage, the subversion of the Sabbath to the ends of diversion and vice; and unless the whole church shall lift up her voice in condemnation of it, it is to be feared that matters will grow worse. The duty of the ministry in this exigency is clear. They must rebuke every form of the evil earnestly and persistently, until the whole moral power of the church is concentrated against it. The conviction should be fixed in every mind that the success of the church depends largely on the proper recognition of the Sabbath as a day of rest from secular labor and of the worship of God. When the people cease to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, our churches will be empty of hearers and the places of public diversion will be full of votaries of pleasure. As a subject of the greatest importance to the church and world, we would again call the prayerful attention of the Conference to the observance of the Sabbath day.

The object of the Tract Society is the circulation of religious truth in a cheap form among the masses, and has been in the past an agent for the accomplishment of much good, resulting in the salvation of many souls. We recommend that the collection for this cause be taken early in the Conference year; that the preachers apply to the society for the tracts allowed them in proportion to the amount of their collection, and that the pastors and tract societies within our bounds be urged to give more attention to the distribution of tracts in their respective fields of labor.

WHEREAS, Under the onward march and grand developments of the kingdom and reign of our Lord Jesus Christ by the Gospel to conquer this world to God; and

WHEREAS, The divinely organized Christian church is the salt of the earth and the light of the world, and is the divinely chosen instrumentality through which the Savior of the world is perfecting the practical results of the remedial scheme which is designed to lift the race to God; and

WHEREAS, Under these benign gospel influences it has pleased almighty God in his providential dealings with us as a great nation, to deliver from captivity and slavery in this land of Christian civilization and religious liberty more than four millions of human beings who are true subjects of Christian philanthropy;

Resolved, Therefore, that it is our duty as ministers of the gospel of Christ and as practical Christians to continue to labor in the future as in the past for the civil, social and moral elevation of these millions of our race, and that we earnestly urge all our people to contribute liberally of their means to this end.

The society asks one thousand one hundred dollars from this Conference to carry on their Christian work among the freedmen. We recommend that this amount be distributed among the districts and several pastoral charges for collection.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

We recognize the Bible as the only revealed will of God to man, and the great light that is to illuminate the darkness that overshadows the moral world; and

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society co-operates alike with all branches of Protestant Christianity in seeking the evangelization of the nations, and inasmuch as it has ever responded liberally in aiding our church in the prosecution of her work, therefore,

Resolved, That we will cheerfully act in accordance with the plans now adopted by the Bible Society in the prosecution of its work, and, where there are no special agents in the field, we will present its claims to our people and will solicit contributions to aid in carrying forward its noble mission.

Resolved, That to counteract the effort now being exerte by infidelity to induce in the public mind a disbelief in the inspired authority of the Bible, we will preach specifically on the subject and will endeavor to circulate books that treat directly on the evidence by which the claims of Christianity are sustained.

Resolved, That we hereby declare ourselves, as heretofore, in favor of retaining the Bible in the common schools of our country, that the youth of the land may be taught those moral precepts that are absolutely essential to the perpetuity and prosperity of our nation.
